- a. any property constituting, or derived from, any proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly as a result of the violation charged in Count One; and
- b. any property used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of such violation.

3. The Defendant has an interest in the following property (hereinafter "Subject Property”):

4. 5. The Defendant agreed that the Subject Property was subject to forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C. §853(a)(1) and (2) and agreed to the immediate forfeiture of his interest in the above-described Subject Property.

6. The United States has established the requisite nexus between the Subject Property and the Defendant’s offense.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Defendant shall hereby forfeit pursuant to, 21 U.S.C. §853(a)(1) and (2), any property constituting, or derived from, any proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly and any property used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of the violation charged in Count One.

R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3).

5. In accordance with the direction provided by the Attorney General and Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(b)(6), the United States shall publish notice of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture and send notice to any person who reasonably appears to be a potential claimant with standing to contest the forfeiture in the ancillary proceeding. The notice may be sent in accordance with Supplemental Rules G(4)(b)(iii)-(v) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

7. Any person, other than the Defendant, filing a petition to contest the forfeiture of specific property, must sign the petition under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property, and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim, and the relief sought.

8. If a third party files a petition asserting an interest in the Subject Property, the court will conduct an ancillary proceeding.

9. When the ancillary proceeding ends, the court will enter a final order of forfeiture by amending the preliminary order as necessary to account for any third-party rights. If no third party files a timely petition, this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture will become the Final Order of Forfeiture.

10. The United States shall have clear title to the Subject Property following the court's disposition of all third party interests, or if no third party petitions are timely filed, following the expiration of the period provided by statute for the filing of third party petitions.
